The Student, a publication of the All India Student's Federation (AISF), has reappeared after a compulsory suspension of two months by the Government of Bombay.* This ban was imposed on 24 February and extended on 23 March.

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. The Student, the organ of the Communist dominated AISF, countered the government ban on its publication by appearing as the Bulletin in duplicated typescripts. The general tone of both these student publications is indistinguishable from that of the Peoples Age and its successors, New Age, Current Affairs, and Peoples Herald.
